Endoscopic Retrograde Cholangiopancreatography (ERCP)
- Difficult Cannulation
- Management of Giant Stones (Mechanical Lithotripsy, EHL, ESWL)
- Palliation of Pancreaticobiliary Malignancies
- Sphincter of Oddi Manometry
- Management of Bile Leaks
- Treatment of Acute and Chronic Pancreatitis
- Endoscopic Pseudocyst Drainage
- Surgically Altered Anatomy (Billroth II cases, Roux-en-Y cases)

Available both on weekdays and weekends.
A therapeutic endoscopist will communicate with the referring physician before and after the procedure.
Inpatient and outpatient procedures • Same day transfers
Weekdays 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Call (410) 328-8729, (410) 328-8730
Evenings and Weekends; Call (410) 328-5780; The GI fellow will contact therapeutic endoscopist on call.

The University of Maryland Gastroenterology Division also offers
EUS, Enteral Stenting, Esophageal Stenting, Photodynamic Therapy, Enteroscopy, Endoscopic Mucosal Resection,
Esophageal Motility, 24-Hour pH Monitoring
www.umm.edu/gi